Personal Department

Sir,

In reply to your docket- no. 4-04 dated 6th March 1907 forwarding for report petition (there is no relevant enclosure) from Shivapada Swami complaining against the Peshkar of the Sri Sri-Kanteswara Swami temple at Nanjangud, I have the honour to submit the enclosed report no. 308/440 dated 12.3.1907 received from the Amildar of the Nanjangud Taluk stating that the Peshkar has been superintending the affairs of the Chamundeswari Amma Devasthanam temple at Nanjangud also as ordered in Govt. Proc. no. 5119-22 dated 5-8-1906 and that the complaints of the petitioner relate to private matters of the Peshkar with Shivapada Swami who appears to have misconstrued the Peshkar when he casually remarked that the servants of the Sri

Sri Srikanteswara Swamy Devasthanam -ham can well be made to do work in the same manner as in other temples also without extra remunera -tion.

2. As Hon'ble, for this reason also that the affairs of the temple are now being attended no arrangements are needed at present and observing that the Devasthanam should not, in this petition, be made the pretext as an impossible application and that (the Pradhan) is really capable of doing more work than what has been now assigned to him

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant Ananthanarayana
for Deputy Commissioner Mysore District

Swami temple complained to do work in the Chamundeswari temple also without extra remuneration and also
